WASHINGTON.

BY TELEGRA PR TO THE TRUBUNE.

The St nate was unable to complete the business which had accumulated as seen as anticipated, and hence did got 40 journ at the time fixed yesterday. An adjournment size die was effected, however, at 9 o'clock last night. to be the only important offices remaining vacant. The mination of Naval Officer at New-York was not set-Ued, and, although not confirmed, Mr. Frankliu will continue to exercise the duties of the office by irtue of lifs former position as Deputy Collector. vana, leaves that office vacant, if the present umbent insists on his resignation. Gen. J. Kilby Smith, his nomination was laid on the table. In Pennsylvania there is only one Revenue office-assessor in the XIIth District, and two post-offices vacant. In Illinois there offices without heads. In Missouri there are two or three d about the same number in Tennessee. It was betinue to remain without a Postmaster, but the name of Gen. S. H. Roberts was sent in for the third time by the President at si o'clock, and he was confirmed within five minutes, being almost the last nomination considered. Cincennati, on Saturday, was in the same satisfied with the nomination of Mr. Thomas, and he was filled by the confirmations of Wm. Harbeson as Surveyor of Customs, De Witt C. Baxter as Naval Officer, and Alexander Cummings, the vicarious Governor of Colorado. as Collector in the IVth (Judge Kelley's) District. Cal licott was confirmed as Collector of the Brooklyn (Hid) District, and Wellwood as Assesser. John Foley, as rejected, the present incumbent will continue in office.

The statement that Sidney Howard Gay was confirmed for the Assessorship of the IXth New-York District, and afterward was reconsidered and rejected is without any foundation in fact. He was referred to the Commitand never reported back. Senator Morgan stated that the present incumbent, Homer Franklin, was a Republican, and he saw no reason why he should be reoved to give place to another who does not reside in The Senate having failed to confirm Mr. Raymond, the President has not decided what shall be done with the Austriam mission. The matter is to be disposed of in a few days. Meantime the Secretary of State has instructed Mr. Motley to deliver official papers, documents, etc., to the Consul or vice-Gonsul at Vienna, Mr. Motley thereupon to be relieved from duty. This official order varded to Vienna several days ago.

E. L. Melineux of Brooklyn, late Colonel of the 139th Regiment New York Volunteers, has been confirmed as Brevet Major-General, for distinguished and gallant ser-akely to be submitted to Gen. Grant for decision, growing out of an election for Directors of the New-Orleans, Jackson and Great Northern Railroad, lately held in the Confederate service his friends obtained from the the Creole General formed a ticket of his partisans, and had appointed the judges to hold the election and declare ered to appoint three directors. Subsequently, the Comorizing large subscriptions on the part of the State Mayor have cast their votes for directors on the stock represented by them respectively. At this last election Governor, Mayor and Union citizens combined, and made a new ticket for directors, composed exclusively of Union men. The judges of election appointed by of the Governor and Mayor would oust the Beauregard directory, decided that, legally, the said officers had no right to vote for the State and city. The vote of Governor and Mayor, if counted, would have defeated the Beaurerd ticket two to one. The indges of election, by this exclusion, reflected the Rebel ticket. The Union people are indignant over this outrage, and intend to appeal to Gen. Grant for orders directing Gen. Sheridan to place the road in the hands of those fairly elected and friendly

The Union people of New-Orleans are preparing letters and petitious to Gen. Grant favoring the removal of the Confederate Col. Thomas E. Adams from the position of Chief of Police of that city. They insist that the chief of the rioters on the 30th of July should not have the con-trol of the police while the present system of registration and reconstruction is going on. They allege that the police are intimidating colored men from registering.

It is not believed by the Mexican Legation here that Maximilian has left Queretaro, and is now in the City of Mexico, as has been reported. Official advices just received from Juarez at Potosi, state that the Liberals have Maximilian completely surrounded by an overwhelming force, and that it is only a question of a few days before the entire Imperial forces will be captured.

Gen. Ord has arrived in this city from Little Rock, Ark. He represents political matters as in a hopeful condition in Arkansas, He leaves for his new Headquarters at Vicksburg, Miss., to-morrow.

XLTH CONGRESS.

SENATE (EXTRA SESSION) .. WASHINGTON, April 20.

THE REPUBLIC OF MEXICO.

The Senate being in Executive Session, the doors were temperarily opened, and Mr. SUMNER (Rep., Mass.) submitted the following resolution, proposing the good offices of the United States between the contending parties of Mexico.

Warras, The Republic of Mexico, stough relieved from the presence of a feering enemy by the total withdrawal of the French troops, continues to be contained by a bloody civil war, in which Mexicans are ranged on opposite sides; and the establishment of a Republican Government on the foundation of peace and security.

Warras, The United States are bound by neighborhood and Republican grapathies to do all in their power for the welfare of the Mexican people;

Mr. HENDERSON (Rep., Mo.) gave notice that he intended to offer the following as a substitute:

Resolved. By the Senate of the United States, that in case Maximilian shall at an early day see fit to abdicate his authority in Mexico, and shall sprifty a desire to without hinself and his foreign troops, to the end that civil war may at once be terminated, the Senate would be gratified that the President weight tender the good effices of our Government to secure, at the hands of the Republican Government of Mexico, for the native followers of Maximillan, such kind and humane treatment as characterizes the conduct of civilized warfare.

The resolution and proposed substitute were laid on the table, and ordered to be printed.

YORK TAX LEVIES PASSED-THE CENTRAL FARE BILL DEFEATED-FAILURE OF THE EXCISE LAW AMENDMENTS-THE UNDERGROUND RAILROAD BILL LOST-CLOSING SCENES.

The last day of the Legislature was the busiest me, yet there was more real work on the part of all the members done on the day previous. The session of the Senate commenced with a speech of two hours in length, by Scnator White, on his own motion to refer the queson of the extension of the powers of the Sodns Canal Company to the Constitutional Convention. It did not take long to discuss the merits of the bill, but to cone Senator W. began to give a sketch of the candidates for the Convention, with the idea of showing how competent that Convention would be to investigate how competent that Convention, with the side of showing how competent that Convention would be to investigate the merits of the bill. After speaking two hours and a half, Senator H. C. Marphy made the point that the gentleman was out of order, as no local legislation could be referred to that Convention, which point being sustained by the Chair, Mr. White was obliged to take his scat. Senators Lowe and Wolcott then followed with dilatory motions, with the idea of killing the bill, and were succeeded again by Senator White, who, to consume time commenced talking about the ventilation of the Senate Chamber. Again ruled out of order, he took his seat only to hear that Senator Folger, a friend of the bill, was succeeded in a motion to refer it to the Committee on Canals. An effort was then made to go into Committee of the Whole on the Excise bill, but Senator O'Donnel objected, and the effort was positioned. Senator Sessions presented a resolution that the Senate's Special Committee on the Canal Frauds be empowered to sit during the recess, and to report the result of their investigations to the next Legislature. The members of the Canal Ring tried to defeat the purpose of Senator Sessions, but they were unsuccessful, and the resolution passed. A few bills were given their third reading, after which the Senate took a recess. The third reading of bills consumed mest of the time of the afternoon session, the principal interruption being the introduction of the following resolution by Senator H. C. Murphy:

have been effected by 11 o'clock, but the Conference Com-mittee on the county tax levy was not ready to report. They did not do so until nearly 12 o'clock, and as soon as the result of their labors were disposed of, the time for adjournment had arrived. After hearing the report of customary committees to wait upon the Governor and the Assembly, to see if they had any further communica-tion to make, Gov. Woodford thanked the Senators for their kindness toward him, and wishing them all the happiness this world could afford, declated the Senate adjourned size die.

sembly went through pretty maken the same functions, passing blits and hearing reports of fittees of Conference. In the morning session is Railread bill was passed as it came from the commentice, the latter having stricken out the allowing Long Island the hearfit of its pre-The bill gives $5,000 to every new railroad com20 miles, and not constructed within ten miles ising road. The vote on its final passage stood o'clock in passing bills which had been sent down from the Schate. At 105 o'clock a recess was falsen for half an hour, during which time a mock Legislature was improvised, with John Caky in the chair, and Ned Underhill as the comic actor. Fun and hilarity was the order of business, and the hits at members and the puns upon their names, kept the crowded floor and galleries in an uprioar. Resolution after resolution, of a serio-comic nature, were introduced, and many members were made the butts of jokes which "went home." Mr. Oakey temporarily vacated the chair for Mr. Raber of Kings, during whose chairmanship a sham Committee was announced as having come from the Senate. Mr. Raber ruled them out of order, and said no committee would be received with favor "except one from the third House." (There was more truth than jest in this remark, although it was intended for the latter.) Wm. Richardson of the "Sutface," and Col. Vandenburgh of the "Underground," were spied among the andience, and they were speedily brought before the bar of the House. Mr. Richardson said that, in behalf of the third House, he was directed to say that their business with the legislators having been transacted, the latter could go home. Amid the regrets expressed at the separation of the two Houses, the further remark, "and may the Lord have mercy upon your souls," was heard but by a few.

At 11:20 o'clock the Conference Committee on the aration of the two Houses, the further remark, "and may the Lord have mercy upon your souls," was heard but by a few.

At 11:20 o'clock the Conference Committee on the County Tax levy reported. The Senate portion of the Countities consisted of Messrs. Gibson, La Bau, and Stanford; that from the Assembly was the same as on the City levy. The amendments fuserted in this levy appropriates $600,000 for the new Court-House, and increases the force of Metropolitan Police to 2,000. The provisions of the bill regulating the use of boats were tacked on, and in this shape it passed. H. A. Genet and M. C. Murphy entered their protests against the amendments.

The report of the Committee having been agreed to, Messrs. Parker and Schreg took the floor, and in short speeches thanked the members for their kindness toward them. Within a few minutes of 12 o'clock Speaker Pitts returned thanks for the kindness and consideration shown him, and asked pardon of all whom he had offended, after which he declared the House adjourned sine die.

The bill increasing the fare on the Central Railroad came up in the Senate yesterday morning; but, on motion of Senator Folger, it was temperarily laid upon the table. In the afternoon, Senator Fierson again called tup, but it was postponed by a tie vote for a half hour. When it again came up, the Senate refused to concur in the amendments by a vote of Ypas, 15; Nays, 15.

A message having been returned to the Assembly to that effect, the latter body appointed a Conference Committee of the Whole on the Excise bill, but through the exertions of Senator O'Donneil they were defeated. Senator Leut had the bill referred to the Committee on Internal Affairs, where it remains. In the evening another attempt was made to go into Committee on Internal Affairs, where it remains. In the evening another attempt was made to go into Committee on Internal Affairs, where it remains. In the evening another attempt was made to go into Committee of the Whole; but, it not receiving a two-thirds vote, it was lost.

Messrs. Price and Freeman have worked hard to have this Excise law amended, but they had against them nearly all the Republican members. If they had had a day or two more time they would doubtless have passed the amendment. Want of time killed them. Strange to say Underground was killed by its own friends by a mistake. As I telegraphed on Saturday night, the Surface and Vandenburg interests came together and concerted a bill, both for an Underground and Surface road. The route was to be up Broadway to Fourteenth-st., and thence under Fourth-ave., and, until the Underground

The friends of the bill then moved to suspend the pending order of business (motions and resolutions). This was carried, and, therefore, the general order of business came up; consequently, the bill was not read a third time before the adjournment. The point of order was raised and sustained, when it was brought up that it was not properly engrossed. Before it was engressed, the Senate adjourned. Thus died the Underground. It is due to Senators White, Folger, Campbell, O'Donnell, and Low, and others who voted to recommit, to state that they favored an Underground road, but they did not, at that late hour, like the foreing through of such a bill by the managers of the Surface road. Senator Pierson voted to recommit, but for what reasons I do not know, as he has been a friend of the Surface road all through the session.

THE SOUTHERN STATES.

SFEECH OF SENATOR WHISON AT GRANGE COURT-HOUSE,

RICHMOND, Va., April 21.—Senator Wilson spoke at Orange Court-House yesterday. He recounted the events which led to the war, and said that after its close the North had no ill-feeling for the South. The South was submissive, and had the measures now pending been adopted directly at the end of the conflict, the South would have acknowledged that the Government was just and liberal. And when Johnson assumed power, he adopted a different policy, which had brought on all this dissatisfaction. Lincoln had prepared eight conditions for the pardon of Rebels, all of which met Wilson's approval. Johnson prepared 14, which were six too many. He (Wilson) had never favored the $20,000 clause, for he wanted the South, except a few prominent Rebels, to be at liberty to go to work. The South had complained of Congress violating the Constitution, and yet upheld Johnson in his violations of the Constitution, are upheld Johnson in his violations of the Constitution in restoring the States. The speaker was opposed to a black man's party, or a winte man's party. Let all who favor human bondage go together, and all who favor freedom and progress go together. If any Rebels had east aside their delusions, let them come up and join the Republican party. submissive, and had the measures now pending been aside their delusions, let them come up and join to publican party.

Mai J. H. Lee, State Senator from Orange, replied to Mr. Wilson. He charged the introduction of Stavery upon the Nortz, and said Lincoln did not at first intend to liberate the slaves, and that the Southern people were the black's best friends.

Mr. Whson replied that in a year the North would give the negro suffrage. He said confiscation might follow if the Recenstruction bill was not accepted.

DEMOCRATIC NOMINATIONS.

On Saturday night the Democratic nominations in this city stood as follows. The leaders of the two wings in several districts are still hotorobbing, and there may be a slight change in one or two districts before election day. The stability of the Democratic Union organization is generally considered doubtful:

Total.

On Friday there were 959 registered and 298 stricken from the lists, making a total addition of 1,368. This, added to the 125,162 registered in November, 1866, gives a total of 127,859.

ACTION OF THE CONSERVATIVE REPUBLICANS.

IVIA Senatorial District.—At an adjourned meeting Fourth Senatorial Conservative Convention, held at the Fifth ward Hotel, April 20, 1807, it was announced by the proper committee that the gentleman who had been non-mated for the Convention on Wednesday last, had declined the nomination. It was therefore resolved that the C invention take this opportunity to recommend to their triends in the district to support at the polis on the day of election, the Delegates at Large nominated by the Unito Ropublican Convention held at Syracuse, April 1867. In the distriction of the Senatorial Delegates be left to the discretion of the voters of the district.

of Brooklyn have issued the following circular for distribution in the IId District:

To the Electors of the IId Senatorial District—Ist, IId, IIId, IVth, Vith, VIIth, XIth, XIIth, XVth, XIXth and XXth Wards of Brooklyn:

FELLOW-CITIZENS: On Tuesday next, April 23, will be held an election for Delegiates to the Constitutional Convention. This Convention will have to reorganize our Legislature, our Judicial system, and indeed the whole frame of our State Government. It will decide, for the next 20 years, who shall vote, who shall held office, what shall be the mode of election or appointment, what remedy shall be devised for the growing corruption of politics, and many other questions of vast importance. There will be many able and honest men in this Convention. Yet the presence of men, not only able and horest, but also made perfectly independent by having no aspirations for further political honors, will be invaluable. Such a man, in whose patriotism and integrity all confide, and of whose genius every citizen of Brooklyn is proud, is presented for your suffrages at this time, he the person of Henry Ward Beccher. This is the only occasion in his he upon which say man has had an opportunity to honor this distinguished citizen by a vote. In laying anew the foundations of government, it is eminetally proper that every class should take part—the minister as much as the lawyer, the meschant or the farmer. The office and duties of a delegate are not political in any partisan sease, and Mr. Beecher will undertake them with that conviction. His friends have strongly urged the nomination upon him, in the being that Brooklya will rejone to honer one who has bouored her in his many and long labors at home and in fierce battle for his country against the hostility of public sentiment abroad. We urge you to do your share by voting the inclosed ticket on Tuesday next, and using all your influence for its election. The gentlemen associated with Mr. Beecher, the Hon. Geo. G. Reynolds (for many years the respected Judge of our

The officers of the Nineteenth Assembly District Republican Association, have issued the following:

FELLOW-CITIZENS: After twenty years the Constitution of this State is to be changed, and the members of the Convention to whom that work will be intrusted are to be elected next Thesday, April 23, from suntise to sanset. This is no ordinary election, but to many citizens it will be the only one of the kind for a His-time. To neglect voting is to east a way the most preclous privilege of an an American citizen. The Republican party have nominated for Senatorial Delegates from the Villith District the names at the head of this paper. You have a right to know them. Mr. Chency is a lawyer of this city, of twenty years' standing; an able advocate in the profession, well known in the courts and to the bar, and in the Twenty-second Ward, where he resides; and known at home for many years, especially as superintending with excellent effect a Sunday-school in that locality. Mr. Crary was a disciple in Washington County of that staunch old Democrat John Crary, whose faith he followed both in law and politics, not leaving either when he came to this city, and the war of the Rebellion breaking out, he espoused the country's cause, and labored with the Republican party. To the bar he is known as a ripe and able lawyer, and as author of a text book of great value to the profession. To his neighbors he is well known as President of "The East-side Association" of citizens, whose object is exclusively the public welfare in the matter of municipal and other legislation. Dr. Thomas of the Nineteenth Ward has been reflected a country sense. Whose object is exclusively the public welfare in the matter of the Nineteenth Ward has been reflected and which he was found among the faithful few that steadily defended the public interest. He is an experienced physician, and a wise and honest legislator, as proven by a trial in the face of the whole country. NEW-YORK, MONDAY, APRIL 22, 1867. was completed, or at least for five years, there was to be a Surface road on Broadway. This arrangement was concluded on Friday might, and the Railroad Committee had that evening reported satisfactorily to all parties. Yesterday morning the feeling against the Surface portion of the report was so strong that it was determined to take it out, which was done in Committee of the Whole last evening. The Committee went through the bill expeditiously, and amended it some, so that Col. Vandenburg could have remuneration for his long labors in behalf of the Underground road, it was evident the friends of the, measure were in a majority, and therefore progress was reported very easily. In the Senate a motion was made to recommit the bill to the Committee on Railroads, which, as it was the only test vote taken, I send.
